Pastor's Message

Why Become a Member of a Congregation?

There was a time when a person just didn't cross denominational lines. If you were Lutheran then you stayed Lutheran. If you moved to a different town then you found their ELCA congregation and you immediately become a member there. Even dating across lines would cause friction within families even fifty years ago. Denominational identity was huge back in the day.

Now, not so much.

I've sat in enough seminars now to learn that people forty and under don't put much stock in denomination. If a congregation is good for the family, has decent music and sermons, doesn't go against any of their core beliefs (political, religious, etc.), and the people are friendly, then most people in that age group will worship there and also, more than likely, won't even inquire about membership. A big reason for that is because nowadays becoming a member of anything may mean being hassled. Being a member of a store may get you perks, but it may get you hidden fees. Being a member of a charitable organization may mean people are going to be calling you often. And the worst is that most people don't like to have to talk to someone to tell them they're quitting. It's simply easier to not be a member.

The first question many ask is, "What does membership get me?" The blunt answer is the right to vote, be on boards, and discounts on church use (weddings, funerals, etc.), which, for people who are already married, doesn't carry much weight. Furthermore, why become a member when worship, church events, leagues, Sunday school, confirmation, baptism, and pretty much all our events are free to non-members?

To me, membership is not something that should be taken lightly. Membership is more than just the right to vote and become a congregational leader, it is saying that this is my congregational home and I'm going to put my all into it.

When I was a teenager my congregation was in a huge fight, my dad was on council, and it was very stressful. I said, "How about we call it a day and just go somewhere else?" to which he replied something like, "No, because being a member is about working hard to make the place where you worship the best it can be because you love it and the people. It's not something you just quit when it gets hard."

Church membership means different things to different people but I've always liked the way my dad talked about it. Yes, we want everyone to worship at ALC. We want everyone to know and learn about God. We want people's kids to love this place and learn too. We don't want anyone to feel pressured or have anxiety about giving offerings, teaching Sunday school, being on a board, or even having to become a member. We just want all people to feel comfortable to worship Jesus here with no strings attached.

And, if you find that you love and care a lot for this place, so much so that you wouldn't immediately jump ship even if times get rough here, that you're passionate about the ministries and the opportunities to serve Jesus here to the point of speaking up and putting in your time and energy to make this place even better than it is, then that sounds to me like you are in the perfect place to become a member.

And, if you're not there yet, great! We love worshipping with you. We love it when you show up. We want to make sure you feel at peace in our sanctuary to worship God. We members are here to serve Jesus and to serve you as Jesus. May this place be a blessing for you whether you are a member or not. Either way, we're glad you're here.

Pastor Adam Roberts

Worship & Music Notes

from Jane Cartwright, Worship & Music Coordinator (831– 5032)

| Week: | Theme / Scripture Passage | |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| February 2-6 | Healing Stories | John 4:46-54 [5:1-18] |
| February 9-13 | Bread of Life | John 6:35-59 |
| February 16-20 | Living Water | John 7:37-52 |
| February 23-27 | The Man Born Blind | John 9:1-41 |
| —Transfiguration of Our Lord— | | |

When our girls were young, a new toy hit the scene, Transformers. With just a few twists and turns, a car or truck would transform into a robot figure. It was amazing to see how quickly the transformation could be made. Children today continue to enjoy transforming action figures, from movies and cartoons, which come in all colors, shapes, and sizes.

Passages this month remind readers of who Jesus is; a healer and comforter during difficult times, a provider of nourishment, for bodies and souls, as the bread of life, a fountain of living water that helps to change daily lives, and one who opens the eyes of believers that they may see his good works. During February, pay close attention as to how Jesus nourishes, listens, and opens eyes to transform individuals, “Change my heart, O God; make it ever true.

Change my heart, O God; may I be like you.” (ELW #801)

Spiritual Disciplines

Lent will be here in about a month and I (Pastor Adam) would like to encourage you to try out a spiritual discipline this year. For me I will be trying to never say/text/post etc. anything negative about anyone. This will take me at least a month to prep myself, and even with a month of prep I'm pretty certain I will fail multiple times.

I'd invite you to join me in that discipline or, if that one doesn't tickle your fancy, here are some other ideas: sit in silence for five full minutes every day trying to think about nothing, pray daily, read a chapter a day of a couple of Paul's letters in the New Testament, read a chapter a day of one of Paul's letters and read that same letter over and over throughout Lent, go to all Wednesday and Sunday services during Lent, try a different way to serve at church.

Whatever you choose, may God bless you and give you the strength needed for the discipline you plan to take on.

Rebuilding Together

There's an organization in the tri-county area that has started up about a year ago called Rebuilding Together. Their mission is to help people live in their homes longer by providing free repairs for low-income seniors, those living with disabilities, families with children, and/or veterans and their families who are in need. This last year they've been busy building wheelchair ramps and grab bars in bathrooms. They are in need of volunteers to help build and will take any skill level. If you volunteer you can help out once a year or multiple times a week. If you find yourself with some extra time and want to make people in your community really happy please let Pastor Adam know.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS will be on Wednesday, February 9th at the 6:30 pm worship service and Sunday, February 13th at the 9 am worship service. Thanks to all who have agreed to serve ALC on our Boards and Council!

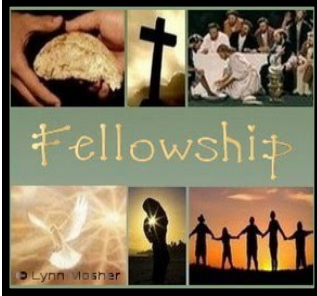

THANK YOU to Craig Zimmerman for bringing all the left over items from our Holiday Fair's New and Nearly New to places that would take them/needed them. These places included:

- Neighborhood Thrift, Mankato– Those in need.
- Salvation Army, Mankato– Various projects.
- Enterprise Thrift, Madelia– Special needs kits.
- Goodwill, Worthington– Those in need.
- Bibles for Missions, Worthington.
- Care and Share, Mountain Lake– All the Christmas items.

Craig noted that some places only wanted certain donations on certain days or were only open on certain days so he had to go at different times on separate days.

Again, THANK YOU Craig for volunteering to bring the left over items to all these places and for giving your generous time to do so!
